

From September 17 - 20 2012 the European Barcoding community met in Brussels to discuss the future direction and to make contacts between different projects.

Thanks to a perfect organization and a very interesting project, the FBI Department was a great